

LARO Membership Concept

Labour Rights Organization (LARO) is an indigenous non-profit making organization duly registered with Malawi Government in 2011, under the Trustees Act, Certificate Number TR/INC 4353 and NGO Board Certificate Number NGO/L/18/19. Its primary role is to advocate for human and labour rights; promote social justice at work places through vari-

The organisation conducts capacity building trainings, workshops, seminars, conferences and provide updates on both local and international labour and employment related standards and legislations to both employers and employees as well as the general public. LARO also provides consultancy services on labour and employment issues in the country.

LARO is also a membership organization for organisations/companies and individuals who may wish to be part of the organization in promoting labour and employment rights in Malawi. Members of the organization enjoy various benefits.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS ACCORDING TO CATEGORY

Organisational/Company Category

1. Free advice and information on labour/employment matters and application of labour legislations and policies;
Free facilitation of workplace related capacity building trainings proposed by member organization;
3. Minimal charge to LARO national capacity building training workshops and other related seminars;
4. Minimal charge for participation to LARO annual conferences;
Representation and facilitation of LARO training workshops and other stakeholders forums.

LARO Annual Membership Subscriptions

Organisation / Company	K250, 000.00 per annum
Individual	K150, 000.00 per annum

B. Individual Category

1. Free advice and information on labour/employment related matters and legislations;
2. Minimal charges to LARO national capacity building trainings, workshops, conferences and seminars;
Representing LARO to other forums and workshops and referral to professional advancement and opportunities.

For registration and more information:

☎ 0884 323 099 / 0887 080870 / 0999 458 573

✉ labrightsort@gmail.com